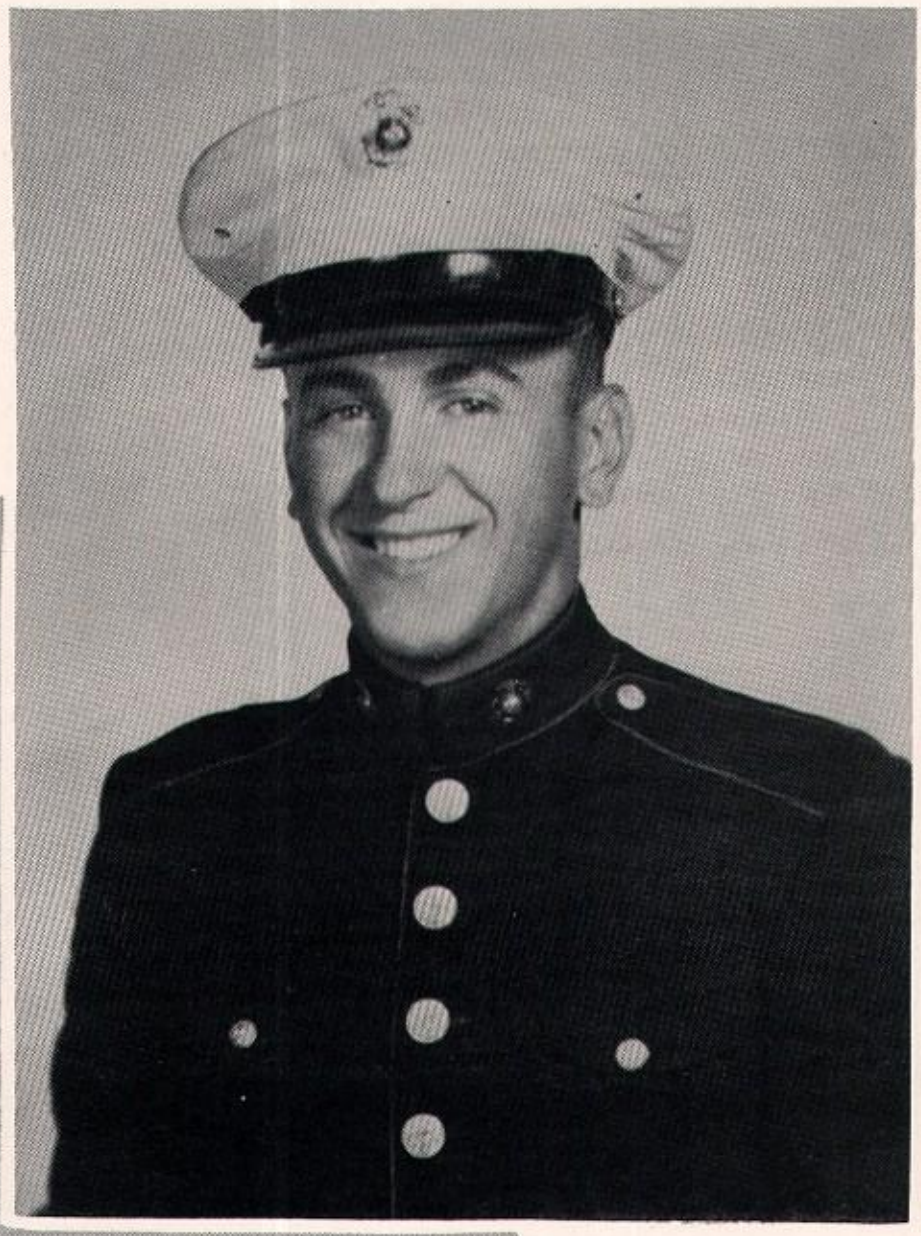
Beyond the Call of Duty



Leo Anthony Biross

Killed in action in Korea, September 8, 1952

As a memorial to Leo Biross, we, the Class of 1953, dedicate our yearbook.

In this time, when our future seems the brightest, we cannot help but remember that day last September when we received news that our former classmate had been killed. Leo has done more than his share to make that future more secure for us.

The News In

GRAZIANO HUMBLE

Arthur Graziano stated today, "It makes me humble," as he was appointed chairman of the Congressional Common Courtesy Committee investigating rewards, personality assassination, and mealymouths. When asked yesterday if he was working under pressure, Bill Waring, his secretary, said, "Ya don't know, do ya?"

Glauber's Salt

It Never Rains!... It Pours.

Television

Appearing on "Leave It to the Girls" tonight as guest of moderator, Dorothy Kovacs, will be Joan Thorne and Mildred Nutz, two local girls who will discuss the problem, "The Case for Female Chimney-Sweeps," or "Women's Rights Have Gone Up In Smoke."

The other debating team will be represented by Phyllis Rachesky and Marlene Zollen who are from "Terrific" Tom Neilson's School for Depressive Debaters.

On The Up-Beat

by KOOL KAT KNARR

Phil Lothrop's mob has opened at Collins' Club for a two-week stay.

Featured with The Herd are Dante Fuligni's trombone and Richie Wooton's piano artistry.

They are coming in just after closing of Gloria Linzalone's All-Girl Aggregation which included Oda Lindemann, Joan Smullen, and Jean Muller, along with four other cool lassies.

In four weeks, the Club will feature the Monotones, that new trio sensation composed of Barbara Muench and the two Bobs, Joskey and Giordano.

ELECTION CAMPAIGN

Beckwith Running for Office

Elma Hive, Rodney Beckwith's manager, has reported that her candidate has been nominated by Charles Schweizer for the vice-presidency of a well-known service club. If elected, Rod stated that he would do a job.

Running against Rod is three-time loser Tom Barrows who consistently failed to gain this post due to the Shere Machine which refuses to back him.

Mitchell Up For Assault

Assault charges have been brought against John Mitchell by Dee Sammartino who said that John had sneered at her. When questioned by arresting officer, Ray Tanner, as to why he had done it, John said, "It's my privilege."

The Snorkel

by BOB FERRISS

Last Friday at about 5:30 I ran into an old friend, Abe Muniz. Moo is manager of the Glob Trotters, a new basketball squad composed of local talent. The team is ready for its first appearance and he gave me the low down. It seems his playmakers are Marques Ryder and his brother Konrad, "The Tank." Craig Kuglen and "Iron Man" Nystrom are his club's mainstays up front, while Moose Mayer holds down the pivot. He doesn't move much but does a good job holding it down. It's beautiful. Muniz says that his bench composed largely of "Bones" Ahsler and "Knees" Mizeski, is as strong as his starting five. The conversation ended here for Muniz suddenly left . . . the check.

Mau Mau Strikes

Kenya was the scene of another bloody massacre today as J. Hurly led his terrorists, Martin Swersky, Dave Wilson, and Marge Lamberto against Joe Huth and his wife, Grace D'Oriano, a notable Kachook plantation family. They were rescued by legionaires Charles Quinzer and Bob Heale who were sent out by Harry Normington, head of the Kenya Police.

New Play Big Hit

Dorothy Korn and Sandra Werner opened last night in a new comedy by Bill Rembert, "The Ghost in the Balcony." Critic Carol Traynor of the "Our Times" rated it as the best thing since Ted Fogas' Trilogy, "Lead, Strontium, and Barium."

Review

Clinton Gives Stiff Fine

Traffic court magistrate, Tom Clinton, handed down a $50 fine to John Starinchuk today, who was charged with speeding.

John declared he was not guilty and was only doing 80 mph. at the time. Clinton stated that reckless drivers are bad because they are reckless.

Others to receive fines were Margot Nelson who was on her way to Washington, D. C., and Dorothy Whiteside, who declared that her '29 Ford is on its last legs.

Doris Hansen received a warning on a parking violation. She was reported as having parked her car in front of Barb Farquher's house a week ago and having entered the house with a cordial. Others at the house party were Margie Klie and Mary Jane King, the Pulsillatin' Queens, and Abbie Rienzi who is currently enrolled in the Concoting and Distilling School. Doris, after being warned, became hysterical and was escorted out by patrolman Clifford Acker.

Greco A Héro

Jim Greco led his band of Turkish Raiders today across the Andes in an effort to reconquer the Incas in Peru. He was met by strong opposition on one flank by Lloyd Jones and Charles Gardner, who have taken over leadership of the Inca forces.

Bob Hayman and Dan Coman are engaged by the Incas in trying to remobilize the armored division which was badly damaged during an air assault by Jack Westmoreland in his Slober Jets, spectacular development in air power, designed by Bill Baer and Joe Batson.

Ace pickup team, Alva Blackledge, Arlene Freedburg, Audrey Kelley, and Joan Lewerenz managed to beat Margaret MacRae, Evelyn Gulow, Marilyn Forhecz, and Ted Trowbridge in a tight match 57-55 to clinch the Olympic berth. The loss was due to Trowbridge's wiggling his stick in the last round. He said it was due to referee Doris Beisler's gigling.

Foreign Missions

The Reverend Donald Ferguson and Deacon Wilson left today for Galapogos Island to do a little missionary work among the Shellbacks. They reported that while the work was tedious it had its rewards.

Also sailing on the same 9:00 Garbage Scow were millionairesses Bernice Fister and Norma Minturn who left their hampster ranch under the supervision of Manager Elaine Roedema.

Dales Rewarded

Dave Dales was awarded a medal for his record attendance at Curtiss Wright today by Pat Sunbury, head of personnel, Dave was quoted as saying that he was in favor of rewards although some people are not. Also rewarded were John Matthews and Bill Morgan, truck drivers, who have traveled 700,000 safe miles for the firm.

Hunters Beware

by Jack Vanderwende

Remain poised and emotionally stable. We realize it is out of season, but try to do a job unless, of course, you can't.

Minotti Entertains

Catherine Minotti, prominent socialite, entertained the Women's Marching and Chowder Society today at her home in Wessex.

Present were Joan Thorne, Joyce Conlon, Barbara Mead, Joan and Cynthia Newbury, Betty Baker, Anna Grace Brisbin, Jacque Fogas, and Lee Gruber.

Poker and pinochle were played after a luncheon of pickled eels feet and marinated pimientos.

R-HI OUT OF DEBT

Ann Fetterly Announces Profit of 53¢

For the first time in 20 years the R-Hi has registered a profit under the leadership of faculty adviser Ann Fetterly. Credit must also be given to V. Maneri, "Fringe King," who gave a thousand dollar contribution, and Hazel Lugg, tugboat magnet.

Getting to Know You

Honest?

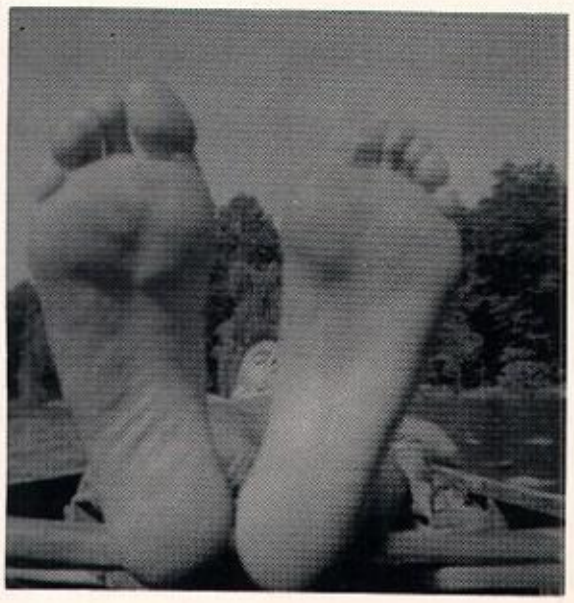
Ya don't know do ya?

Tell me where do they go, those smoke rings I blow?

Oh, Romeo—

Florida does all this?

Primadonna.



Dick Tracy—Mr. Flat Feet.

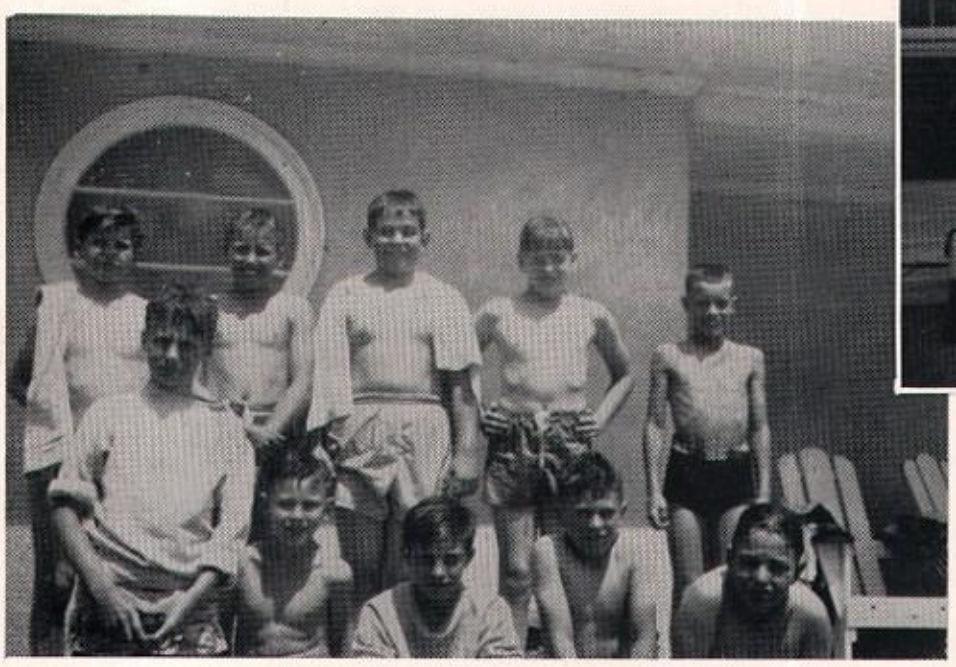
Climbing the social ladder.

Mutt and Jeff, "Triaders."

R. H. S., here we come.

Those Days Are Gone Forever

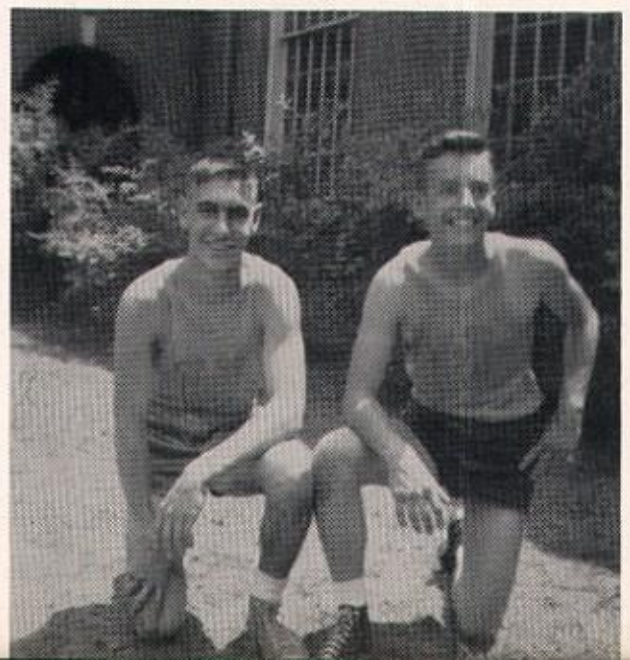
This is honor?



Olympic Swimming Team.

Under the clock.

"Wheels"



By the Sea

Swinging on a moon beam.

Please, Daddy?

Peek-a-boo.

Down by the old mill stream.

Hey Mr. Tap Toe!

Siamesi twins.

Gone with the tide.

Hysterical, aren't they?

Sleepy Time Down South

I'm sitting on top of the world.

Grandma, what long legs you have!

Lollypop girls.

Orderly confusion.

Broadway's latest, Can-Can.

Early in the mornin'.

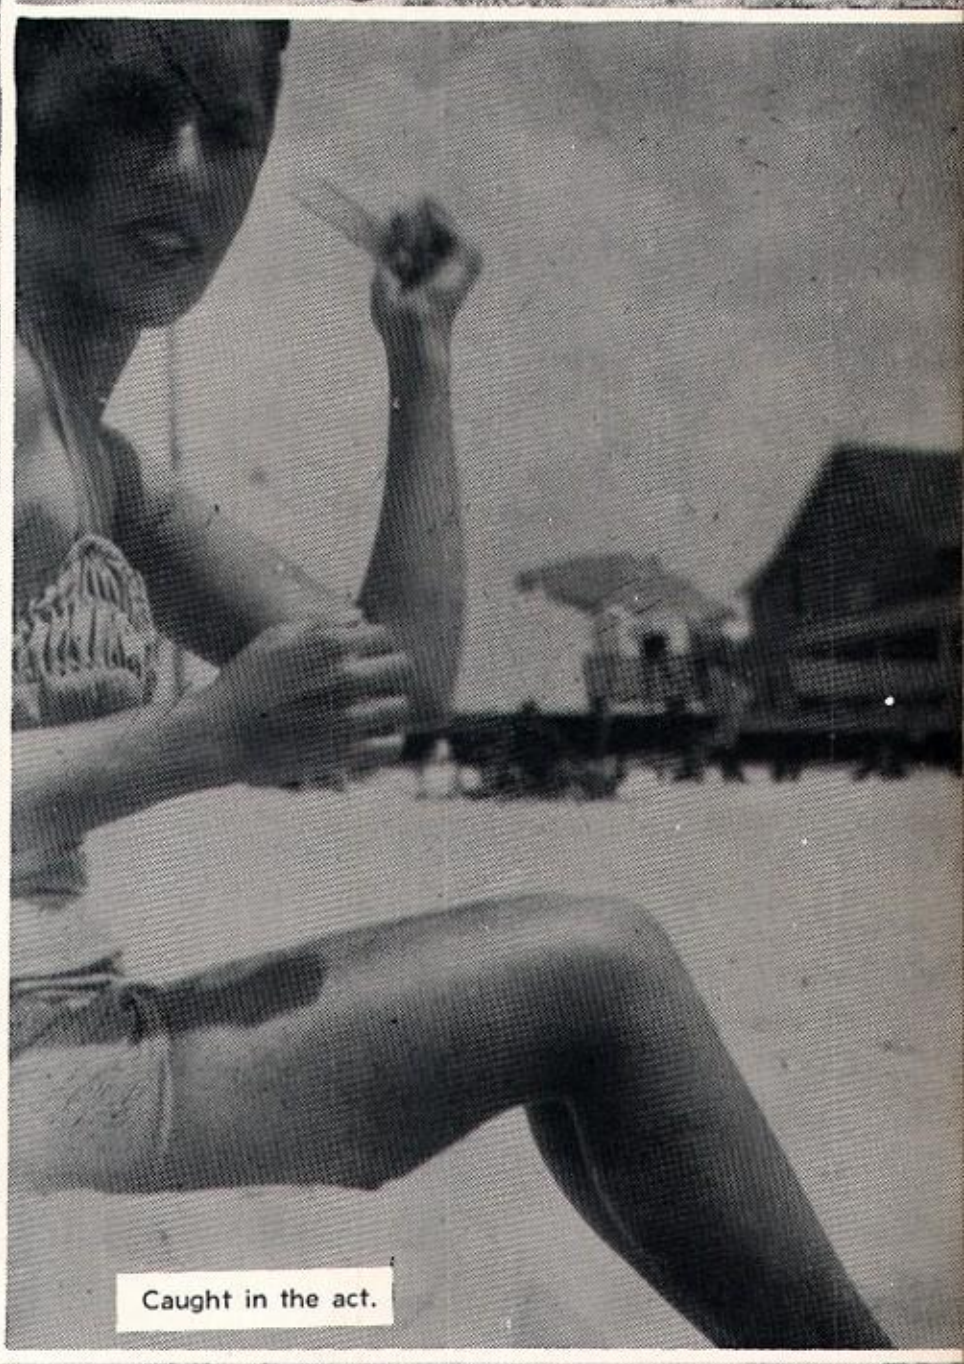
Tennis, anyone?

Just Around

But I don't even know you.

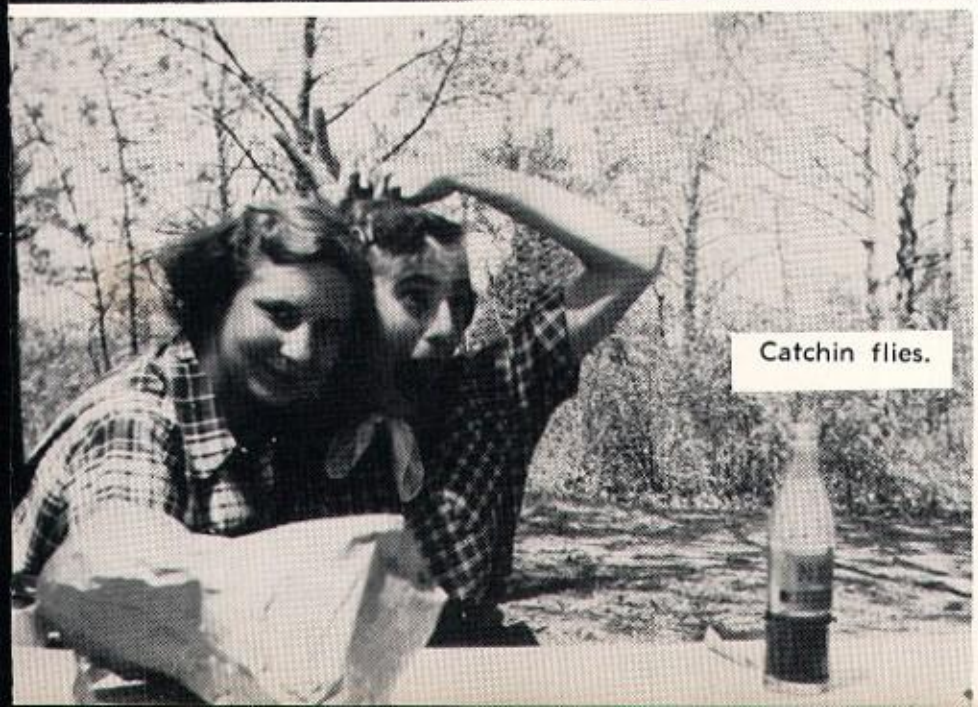
Travel in style, with the Board of Education.

Going steady?



Caught in the act.

Bewitched, Bothered, and Bewildered.



Catchin flies.

Joke???

A Rendezvous at . . .

They Stand Alone

Gee Dad, dinner!

Hey, Mr. Janeba.

Miss Rheingold, 1954.

Pistol Packin' Mama.

Which twin has the Glover's?

Mr. Big League.

Harry Conover calling.

Don't bother me, child.

Whale

Candid Camera

Slide rule please, Mrs. Ross?

You name it, I'll feed it.

Martin Kane and Boston Blackie, Inc.

Be on the lookout for license number XF8847

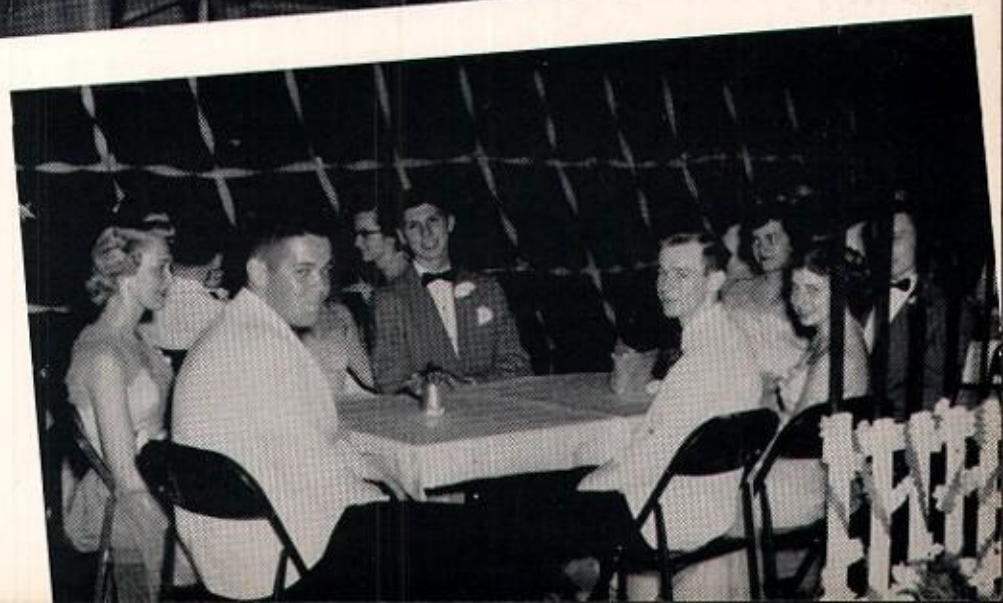
What kind of angle is this, Mr. Grant?

I'm forever blowing bubbles.

What?

Captain Video calling, do you read me?

Junior Prom



Going My Way?

Mistresses of Hyde Park.

If the shoe fits, wear it.

You aren't leaving, are you?

Game time.

Tell me a story.
